Robert Half Management Resources

Financial executives require the assistance of highly skilled professionals to manage today's complex and high-profile initiatives. Companies are expanding the size and skill sets of their accounting and finance teams to manage in-depth financial analysis; financial and regulatory reporting requirements, including internal audit support; merger and acquisition analysis; and the improvement of internal controls.

Businesses rely on our highly skilled accounting and finance consultants to fill crucial experience gaps within their organizations. Robert Half Management Resources provides senior-level accounting and finance professionals on a project and interim basis and serves companies of all sizes, from startups to Fortune 500 firms. Our consultants have a broad range of industry knowledge, and many hold in-demand certifications.

Our network extends throughout North America, Europe and the Asia-Pacific region, which allows us to provide our clients with experienced management talent when and where they need it for special initiatives, and during periods of growth, transition and peak workloads. Our professionals also fill critical positions such as chief financial officer, controller, senior financial analyst and internal audit manager on an interim basis.
